

We welcome children and adults with long or short term special needs, their families, teachers and therapists, groups or schools; or anyone with an interest in special needs.

We are a voluntary organisation serving the community.

Professionals, parents and caregivers come to us because we are an excellent resource centre for ideas and material to assist them.

No referral necessary all enquiries welcome.

FOR THOSE WITH PHYSICAL, COGNITIVE, DEVELOPMENTAL, EMOTIONAL, SOCIAL AND SENSORY NEEDS

Special Needs Library is a lending resource, that hires educational and therapeutic resources to enrich learning experiences and promote development of those with special needs in our community.

For Example:

- Autistic Spectrum Disorders
- Cerebral Palsy
- Down Syndrome
- Dyspraxia
- Sensory Processing Disorders
- multiple births
- delayed language development
- those with physical disabilities
- intellectual disabilities
- developmental delay
- specific learning difficulties
- "short-term needs" clients - perhaps a convalescent patient
- clients facing the special problems of the aging process
- visually impaired children
- home schooled children
- gifted children

Over 3500 resources are arranged according to the particular skills that they are designed to develop including:

- Language development
- Numeracy
- Gross motor skills
- Fine motor skills
- Music/Sound
- Sensory exploration
- Motor planning
- CD Roms and DVDs
- Specialised assistive resources
- Cognitive skills

as well as general indoor/outdoor toys.

An Educational and Therapeutic Resource Advisor can assist you in the library to offer guidance on suitable resources.

In certain circumstances, home visits may be available at the discretion of the Advisor.
